

Communication and Presentation Skills

Listening Activity

Answer the following questions?

1. How can we learn critical thinking?
2. How did you learn to think critical thinking?
3. Have you ever been taught critical thinking? How were you taught?
4. How important is it for the universities to teach critical thinking?

Vocabulary Review

Time-intensive/blow one away/undertake/staggeringly successful/

slash into pieces/malevolent/coherently/articulate

Watch the video, take notes, and answer the following questions.

1. According to the speaker, what is the best way to learn critical thinking?
2. How does his RUBRIC for essay writing help develop critical thinking? Rather than telling them that your full essay is wrong tell them the wrong thing Wrong word, Wrong Phrases, Order of writing, no coherency between paragraph,
3. Why is teaching writing hard?
4. What can be the problems in a bad essay? Write any 2.
5. Choose the best answer. The rubric addresses writing
  - a. From the production point of view
  - b. From the grading point of view
6. What practice at the university does the speaker criticize?
7. How can critical thinking benefit you? Mention any 2 benefits. 7
8. How does critical thinking win an argument? 1. Creating Opportunities
9. What are the benefits of good writing? 2. Influence
10. According to the speaker, why does a university not show the connection between writing and thinking? 3. Earning Money
11. How strongly does a speaker feel about the subject?
12. Do you agree with him in his accusation against universities?

Explain your answer with reasons.

6. 1. Speaker criticizes first that they do not tell why to write
- 2. They tell That you should write to get grades.*

8. You should learn to write because it learns you how to think. and if you learn think you will speak write and win argument by better way of organizing points

11) Endless mystery why didn't make self evident

9. 1. Coherency of Argument